"Communication strategies on how to persuade potential clients to purchase or use your product."

Dr. Woodrow is a communications faculty at UHV. As an educator, collaborator and innovator, Mr. Wagner is committed to developing the skills, strengthening the character, and challenging the intellect of his students. With over twenty years of developing curriculum and delivering dynamic courses in interactive environments, Mr. Wagner's experiences have promoted student development, administrative management and institutional service.

As an educator, Mr. Wagner seeks to elevate the intellectual spirit of his students by helping them use communication to exercise their freedom, listen to understand the specific needs of diverse groups, and execute unique and innovative solutions to make their community a better place.

Dr. Woodrow will model how one might construct viable arguments that adjust ideas to people and adjust people to ideas.
